

touchREVIEWS in RMD

Aims and Scope

touchREVIEWS in RMD is an international, peer-reviewed, open-access journal dedicated to the timely publication of review articles, original research, and editorials in the general field of rheumatology.

Designed to support time-pressured physicians, clinicians, nurses, general practitioners and related healthcare professionals involved in the management of rheumatic and musculoskeletal disorders, touchREVIEWS in RMD addresses the most important and salient developments in the field.

To acknowledge the important contribution other healthcare professionals make in the co-management of patients with rheumatic conditions, touchREVIEWS in RMD also publishes contributions from a range of other medical disciplines promoting inter-speciality discussion and a holistic approach to patient care.

Comprehensive bibliographies for each article mean that touchREVIEWS in RMD is an informative and valuable reference tool for use throughout the year.

All articles are subject to peer review, and must adhere to the ICMJE (www.icmje.com), GPP-3 (www.ismpp.com/gpp3) and COPE (http://publicationethics.org/files/Code_of_conduct_for_journal_editors.pdf) guidelines.
